

SermonIndex Announcements :: STATUS: Server Updates - Nov 24/03STATUS: Server Updates - Nov 24/03 - posted by sermonindex (), on: 2003/11/24 3:27

As of Monday, November 24/03 at 3:00AM steps are being taken to update the download server where all the audio sermons are hosted. Please pray that everything goes well. Expect downtime periods periodically as this process is underway. I will keep you updated on developments as soon as they happen. The forums and all the other site functions will be fully operational. Just the 'downloads' section will be the part of the website affected by these updates.

The server seems to be running fine now. But I would appreciate some help administrating the server. Its a Windows 2K pro server that hosts the audio sermon files. If YOU are a Christian brother/sister that you know could help! please let me know at: sermonindex@msn.com

There are some things that could still be done on the security side of things and also on the running of the server more efficiently.
