Militant Islamists in Pakistan have called for the elimination of Christians and the public hanging of a Christian accused of blasphemy.

According to a news release from human rights organization Christian Solidarity Worldwide, or CSW, about 3,000 Muslims gathered for Friday prayers at the Jamia Mosque in Sangla Hill on Dec. 2. It was at that location three weeks earlier that three churches, a school, a convent and Christian homes were attacked in Pakistan's worst outbreak of anti-Christian violence since 2002.

Muslims believe that Moses was a prophet and received the Ten Commandments, but why don't they believe what the prophet says?

Thou shalt not commit murder!

Muslims also believe that Jesus was a prophet, yet when one does not heed to the word of a prophet, their belief in God is in vain, because the prophet is God's mouth piece.

So they listen to their prophet Mohammad, and push all that was spoken before him away, and embrace his teachings, yet God did not speak thru this man, and yet they listen to this so called prophet.

Absolutly Amazing.
