Hi Sunshine Jill,

Sorry we're so pokey lately. I feel like a turtle myself anymore with getting around the board. A lot going on for everyone.

Welcome to you and yes, I still have the same reaction as you've stated above.

I downloaded quite a bit when I first found this site. I thought I'd blow a gasket on my computer or something. You can tell I'm really computer savvy. Ha.

Welcome again and glad the Lord led you here also.

Annie

Welcome Jill,

I am glad you found the sermonindex resource, I pray that the Lord open your spiritual understanding even more through the sermons as you seek more of Jesus. Glad to have you on the site. If you have any questions let me know.

A great sermon to start to listen to if you haven't yet is a sermon by paris reidhead: Ten Shekels and a Shirt
