I need help - posted by katdan (), on: 2006/2/7 12:41

I want to copy sermon's for my 82 year old blind mother I have a built in cd burner in my pc I can burn cd's from other sources but when I tryed to copy the blessed words of the sermon index files that I downloaded to my libary it will not burn. I am not sure if this is possible.I may not be doing it correctly ,I have self taught computer knowlege but have a lot to learn. I will be thankful for any guidance.

Hi Katdan,

welcome to SI what burning program are you using have Nero, Windows Media player 10 but i do all my Burning with itunes available here :

 (http://www.apple.com/itunes/download/) itunes

also try windows media player 10: (http://www.microsoft.com/windows/windowsmedia/mp10/default.aspx) Media Player

one of these should help

God bless

matt

Welcome to SI and glad to hear you are using the resources here to bless your dear mother.

We may be able to help you get those sermons burned to CD but a little more information would be helpful. What is the file format that you are attempting to copy (probably .mp3 since most files from this site are in that format but not all)? What CD burning software are you using and what if any error messages do you get when attempting to burn the sermons to CD?

In Christ,

Ron
