Yes Dom, I will pray that we pray what is on God's Heart.

Lord Bless His Will on earth.

We have a prayer meeting at church on Friday mornings for revival. Its getting more intense..we have new ones coming to pray and everyone just weeps & weeps. God is really starting to wake up the slumber...

Pray that your prayer meeting increases even more that you have to rent a hall and you even get non christians coming to your prayer meeting or that your prayer meeting is larger than your church.

If your prayer meeting is full just pray for it even more so it fills up even more space, the more people you have on there knees the better.

Why not have more, Let us pray and weep for souls , jesus give me a heart and to weep for lost souls and lost sheep.

Let it not be enough we want as much as god can give us more people not only praying but reading there bible and worshipping him.

We just need more people praying
