Hi,
I'd like to read the Journal of George Fox and a book mentioned in an Art Katz sermon named Repentance: The Secret of a Joy Filled Life.
(I could not clearly get the German woman's name that wrote this book).

I have not been able to find these, and was hoping someone knew of a website or publisher I could order these from..
thank you,
ruthiepoothie

The book Art Katz was referring to was written by Basilea Schlink. She has been a blessing to me, there are several sermons and articles from her right here on SI. You can pick up the book you mentioned for very cheap at Amazon.com, here's a link...

Looks like the Fox journal can be found cheap at Amazon also...

Dear Ruthiepoothie,

One time I was looking for the journal of George Whitefield. I went to various Christian Stores and couldn't turn it up. It was eventually found at one of the large secular book stores, Barnes and Noble, near a university town. If you are near any of the large book chains like Barnes and Noble, Dalton, or any other, try them if the Christian book stores don't have them.
